

Message from the Spiderwoman and White Buffalo Calf Woman: The Point of New Harmonics (Message to the participants of the Canada Journey Jul/Aug 2007)

Although this message was channeled for the participants of the Canada Journey, its contents are so important for all of us that I am including it here at the main message. It was channeled on the lunar eclipse of Aug 28, 2007.

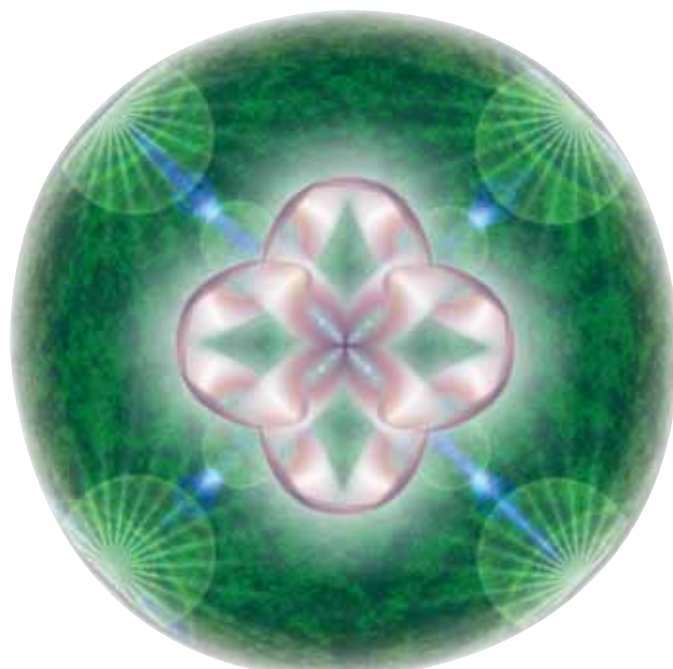

Our hearts are carried to you on Eagle wings to recount the success of the sacred journey to Canada. In the sweat-lodge you were purified and prepared, and drums emerged within this time; with medicine bundles in hand you journeyed into the land. There the infusion of light began, like a focused ray, to generate again and again the place of new harmonics that you have grounded in a very special way. Lord Michael, holding the blueprint of possibilities unlimited and fine, built the foundation for this sacred place within you that is indeed refined. A foundation that for the rest of the world still a distant possibility you all collectively made immediate and real for Mother Earth and Mankind.

Your main medicine was essential at this time and that is why we speak to you today, for between this day and the work of the main medicine on this new harmonic point there is a deep and sweet connection fine. Many of you are aware and many shall become aware, that after the long journey of letting the foundation settle within your energy fields, an alchemical event in Haida G'wai (Queen Charlotte Islands) did occur. In order for this new point of harmonics to be anchored through you individually and through the group, I, Spiderwoman did of necessity have to merge with your main medicine. This alchemical union prepared you and the world to optimize the gateway on which we speak today: this lunar eclipse holds many a reference to your journey true. For this eclipse today opens to the world the harmonic point that you have anchored in this special way. Through this alchemical union, the new harmonic point emerges at the back of the spine between the heart and solar plexus and is a flattened egg shape in crystal clear light pink light. This point floods the lower and upper chakras with a new awareness of elementals, devas, spirits, elves, totem spirits, angels and other light beings. It will take time and focused discipline to access the gifts of this point in its effect on each chakra, even upon the extended energy system such as the 17 chakra system. Note well we also say, that by merging my energy through Jhadten with the main medicine of the group, White Buffalo Calf Woman, the possibility to encompass the whole group in this harmonic field was fulfilled. That in turn made it possible to anchor this harmonic field in this world. The remainder of the journey was there to experience again and again the value of 'meaningful ritual', i.e.

the meditation in the Butchard Gardens, the film at the theatre on Grouse Mountain, the experience of the dolphins and belugas at the aquarium and even the final mean at the Salmon House on the Hill. These rituals showed the power of focused intent from this place of new harmonics. Yet to be explored is the focused work with the two energy fields, your own personal unique combination of Spiderwoman and your main medicine, the group combination of White Buffalo Calf Woman and Spiderwoman. This will mean exploring the point of new harmonics within you and within the group that is still active during these 88 days of integration and beyond if you choose to continue with it. Before we begin to talk in detail about the new point of harmonics, we need to revisit the last meditation of the group in Vancouver at Jhadten's home. As many of you know this place has been vibrationally prepared through years of weekly meditation meetings where glorious energies have been anchored on Earth. In this very special energy field, Metatron was able to transmit the consciousness codes for the gifts of Spiderwoman and White Buffalo Calf Woman. This in turn was the final and actual complete activation of the new point of harmonics, without which it would not be available to Mankind as it would not be completely activated in the world. In activating the grounded energy in the whale matrix in the node beneath Vancouver, it was simultaneously activated through the laws of higher resonance in all nodes of the whale matrix around the world. The consciousness codes not only awaken the full power of this point but also awaken the possibility for the 'new wisdom' held within this point to be released into mankind's consciousness, especially yours at this time.

What is this consciousness of the new point of harmonics and what can we say about it? It makes us more aware of the elementals and other energy realms and restores the power of meaningful ritual. What this means can be exemplified through the experience of the effect of the new harmonic point upon all chakras. Much of this will first be an experience and the full awareness of the power of this effect shall gradually emerge the more it is experienced. For example, toning in meaningful ritual can open doorways in nature and in your own body that shall lead to deeper connections to the Earth, new abilities and talents, as well as more powerful connections to your soul and the celestial realms. This leads to a great clarity about who you are, why you are hear on Earth and how you can accomplish your goals. During such ritual focus on the present moment, for whatever was is in no way comparable to what is now and you cannot even imagine what you are evolving into. Focus on the point of new harmonics and with the mind/heart connection direct the new harmonics through a chakra, i.e. the throat chakra, towards a specific object or person or event. Experience the effects of this sound and the silence that follows. Trust in this new connection to go completely through the doorway of this experience and allow the love to flood you that returns. Then allow new awareness to surface within this experience. Understand your connection to the Earth and the Heavens, to your body and soul, have been completely rewired at this time. The old connections no longer exist and would be of no assistance now anyway. This new connection is extremely immediate, intimate and faster than thought. How can you become comfortable, trusting and peaceful with this new connection? Call upon us each time you explore this and know that the more often you focus on these experiences, the more familiar, reliable and rich this connection will be.

I, Spiderwoman, have infused this point with the sacred geometry, the mystery school teachings of the art of manifestation and sound creation, into this point; teachings that will restore wholeness to Mother Earth and Mankind. I, White Buffalo Calf Woman, have infused this point with the new harmonics of compassion and grace, that unity in this world amongst all things will reign. As your awareness of our gifts unfolds, you shall come to know yourselves so well that it is evident who you are and why you are here in this world and how you have served as well as the infinite possibilities of service that present themselves to you; opportunities to serve that but allow you to blossom and bloom in the joyful activities and consciousness states that you adore personally. Rejoice for you have anchored this not only for yourselves but for all nations, colors and creeds! Call upon us and we shall more than assist in bringing awareness and experience of the point of new harmonics to you during this time. Namaste!

Because this sacred journey to Canada was so important I would like to share a few of the photos from this journey, mostly taken by Patrick Kugelmeier from Switzerland who is able to tell the story of this journey in such eloquent images

There are so many pictures that it is hard to leave out one. The sacred energies of the sacred villages in south moresby on Haida Gwai, Balance Rock, Tow Hill where we did the ceremony with Spiderwoman and you can see everyone's medicine bundles hanging in the trees of this magical forest (Tow Hill is the cliff at the sea near Masset), the Haida Feasts at Robertas in Skidegate and at the Longhouse in Masset (Christopher White), the Butchard Gardens in Victoria, the Cathedral Grove near Qualicum Beach, Grouse Mountain and home. Everywhere we were blessed with hospitality and joy, appreciation and gratitude, fair weather and astounding experiences of our sacred land Canada. Spiderwoman was writing on the sky all the time as you can see from some of the cloud pictures. The Eagle was always with us and seemed to be watching over us. Namaste.

Whale Journey March 1-8, 2008 Hear the Call to Union with your Soul!

The Unity Codes are new communication sound codes that help create a reality that is peaceful, centered and fulfilled.

COME TO THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC -SILVER BANKS IN THE CARIBBEAN!

Come join us in this extraordinary experience of swimming with the humpback whales. Here on Silver Banks, a reef 90 miles north of the Dominican Republic, is the only place in the world where you legally can have an in-the-water encounter with them. At this time of year, the humpbacks have come down from Greenland to have their babies...so we will have encounters with Moms and their babies along with their escorts, Singer whales and other groups of humpbacks. We will see rowdy adolescents, tail slapping and breaching. The experience is totally safe and well guided through the professional team of Conscious Breath Adventures. Jhadten will provide daily meditations 'under the stars' as well as before entering the water to attune you to the frequencies of these 'Melchizedeks of the Planet'. This year the whales will be transmitting the unity codes of sound creation from the Great Mystery of the Void. These sound codes from the whales enable us to co-create a new reality that is peaceful, centered and fulfilled in this time of transition, chaos and change. The experiences you have will leave you feeling joy, amazement, awe, humility, gratitude, and respect. They will make you laugh, and sometimes they will make you cry; they will always touch your spirit. A journey to the Silver Banks is an adventure that will awaken your consciousness and inspire your soul.

It is a life transforming event...so come prepared to be changed. Price includes journey from Puerto Plata to Silver banks, double room accommodations onboard, all wonderfully prepared gourmet food and snacks, daily excursions in smaller boats to the whales (around 8 hrs each day-not obligatory but if you are there you won't want to miss a morning or evening). Snorkel, fins and wet suits (optional, not necessary but recommended mainly to stay warm out of water) are to be brought with you-not provided by tour. Airport pick-ups will be arranged once we receive registration and your flight info. Note: you do not have to be a good swimmer to take this trip...just be comfortable being in the water or willing to take the plunge. We don't swim as much as float near the whales... we never swim to the whales, they come to us. Many who are not fully comfortable in the water use floatation devices, which is absolutely fine.

PRICE: $3100 (US DOLLARS) [Deposit: US$1500 (Full payment by Dec 1st 2007)] PLEASE NOTE THAT AS OF SEPT 1ST, THERE ARE ONLY 2 SPACES LEFT ON THIS JOURNEY SO ACT FAST IF YOU WANT TO GO!

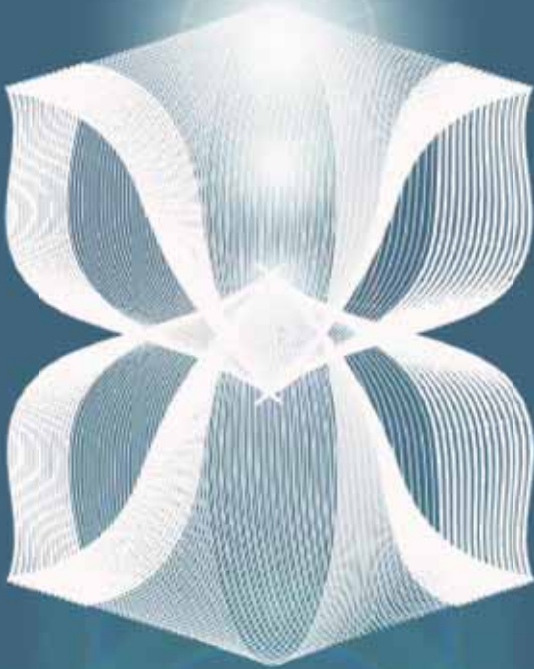

Participants are required to make their own flight arrangements to Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic (airport code: POP) price includes $150 government tax, tip for crew ($250) and cost of transfers to and from the boat either to airport or local hotels ($50) as well as the $100 fuel surcharge per person. Book early to reserve your space on this wondrous adventure. Initial deposit US$1500 (non-refundable) through Sacred Spaces 604-733-3473 or use the payment option in the website shop or email Jhadten for information on other ways to pay. Due to our group rate we are actually paying less than the normal booking rate.

You can also email Jhadten to enquire about booking a hotel before and after the journey in Puerto Plata as most of the participants choose to spend a few days before and after the journey at a resort; Jhadten also does meditations prior to and after the Silver Banks journey at the resort to help integrate the energies of the journey (again optional but fun if you can do them). I also encourage you to visit the Conscious Breath Adventures website at <http://www.consciousbreathadventures.com> to read more about this incredible experience in the Caribbean. Please register online, email me, write or fax me.

New CDs to be released this Fall AMAZING!

Sounds of Light

The sequel to Sound of Creation this CD reflects the level of sound awareness and sound healing, sound initiation and sound acceleration that was experienced on the Sacred Journey to Australia in 2003. The various themes and energies of the six tracks of the CD reflect the codes used to open a new Dreamtime on Mother Earth in the heart of the Dreamtime, Purnululu National Park in Western Australia. The music was composed by the brilliant Hans Timmerman and he excels in his magical alchemy of editing as well.

Meditation for the Point of New Harmonics

Just take a deep breath, close your eyes, relax and sigh on the exhale (x3). Imagine yourself breathing the pure divine Love of your soul into the Earth. Imagine that flow as a river of pink glistening light. Travel on the waves of that flow into the Earth being aware that silvery dolphins guide you to a place deep within the Earth, the whale matrix: a bright electric blue web of crystalline energies all around the heart of Mother Earth with spheres of blue light creating the intersecting points of this web. Enter into a ball of this blue Light guided by the dolphins who then seem to rest to your left and right, cuddling up to you like a dog would. You are aware of the magnificent whales all around you, singing their heart tones and radiating the love of the Goddess into this space. Yet before you, out of the radiant center of this ball of light you are in, a beautiful Goddess in shimmering white crystalline and pink pearlescent light is walking towards you and as she does, a point in your spine, just between your heart and solar plexus begins to resonate with her energy. She smiles and says, "Now, oh child of Light, the time is come to lift into the next dimension of light. All things are now changing and the point of reference for your new energy systems is at this point in your spine, the bridge between higher and lower dimensions, that a new frequency of your soul can be embodied here on Mother Earth at this time. Carry this energy with our Love therefore, to the realms of your incarnation, wherever it may be on Earth, feel it anchored there as you tone the energy and allow that energy to carry you now unto the starry Heavens."

As you are lifted up through the planets and stars by this energy, you realize that you are travelling directly to Galactic Centre, as a bright blue star is directly in front of you. As you come closer you see it is a waterfall of electric blue sparkling rainbow light. Pass through this veil very consciously, all the while focusing on the point of new harmonics within your spine. As you pass through the veil you become aware of the many angelic orders of light beings and Ascended Masters, even galactic and cosmic Masters surrounding you. They in turn, all lift you higher into the golden and pink frequencies of the Jahweh energies, the grid of Christed Consciousness, where Lumina and Apollo, the Elohim of the Radiant Ray of Illumination, shine their love into your body and with this activate the pink transparent crystalline energies of the point of new Harmonics so that it now can be an active element in your creative endeavours. Learn to think through, channel through, sing through, move through, love through and create through this point of reference. Bring this activated energy back to Mother Earth the Way you came, all the while thanking all who have assisted you and understanding that you bring this gift back to Earth for all of Mankind. Tone this energy finally to ensure the full anchoring/earthing of this energy in your and the Earth's fields. Namaste.
