

Message from the Seraphim: New Portals of Light opening!

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One, for we are the Seraphim angels of Light, the Keepers of the Ark of the Covenant and come to you on the winds of change that is upon your realms to speak to you today of the new portals of light opening in your realms and why these are of import to each and every soul upon the Earth at this time! This full moon of May, the moon of Wesak indeed, proclaims the thinning of the veil and so it is appropriate that now we can reveal the shifts that are occurring that many of you have felt as well. Perhaps in nature during this spring you have noticed in the northern hemispheres the phenomenon of nature unfolding. As in all of your springs, winter awakens to new life in trees and plants, seeds are quickened and buds unfold. Yet in this year perhaps you have notice in a magnolia tree blooming, or an apple or cherry tree blooming a new happening there. For as you behold these blossoming trees you will become aware of the elements around this tree. Be it a house, a car, a road or a fence, you will begin to notice that everything around this tree is moving into an extraordinary harmony with the blossoms of this tree. It is as if the house, the car, the road or the fence has taken on the hues and texture of the blooms. As you gaze into this sudden appearance of 'harmonized energy field' you begin to notice between the tree and its blooms and the house, road, car or fence, an energy field that is 'responsible' for this harmonization. Gazing into that field of energy you become aware that it is very alive, almost a 'liquid reality' that seems to shimmer and glow with the power of its harmonization. It is as if the tree and its surroundings had been separate before and now it is suddenly connected in a very special way; this connection is creating a unique and powerful harmonized field of energy. Go therefore, into nature and observe as keenly as you can all things and begin to notice where the harmonizing fields are and how they affect you. With the rational mind you will not be able to access much information or experience but with the whole mind and all perceptions you will easily enter this field of magic and altered states of consciousness. It is like experiencing a brand new world.

Now we would ask you to relax and enter this harmonized field of liquid reality to experience your consciousness being there. Why? For as it manifests without it is also manifesting within ~ and this is perhaps your greatest experience of the new relationship between your body and soul at this time...for the harmonized field between tree and surrounding

A Special Spontaneous Event with Celia Fenn and Jhadten Jewall
CREATING THE NEW EARTH AND ACTIVATING THE CITY OF LIGHT WITH THE CETACEAN ENERGY
APRIL 9TH 2007 IN ALMERE

This spontaneous event in the Netherlands was genuinely amazing. Celia Fenn works with the right whales of the southern hemisphere and I work with the humpback whales primarily of the Atlantic Ocean in the northern hemisphere; our workshop brought these two energies together in order to generate a twin flame energy that is the key to new world creation and also to activate the city of light Almere near Amsterdam in the Netherlands. Lots of toning, channeling from both Celia and Jhadten as well as a channeled double induction (both of us channeling at the same time) brought the workshop to completion. I would love to include what Celia wrote about the event here as well, so the following is a quote from her website:

<http://www.starchildascension.org/> for it describes so beautifully what was accomplished by the workshop. It was a delightful co-creation and to me this seems to be the way of the future, of us cocreating more and more together our service to the world and humanity! To read this quote go to page 3 exemplifies, creates a manifested mirror of what is happening inside of you at this time. Perhaps in many ways you have felt the separation of body and soul again and again in this lifetime. Indeed, the experiences of third density reality have impressed upon you through church, state and mass consciousness that very separation. No one has been able to elude this impression, except perhaps the great masters such as Buddha, Mohammed and Christ. Now that separation has been slowly healed by the healing grace of the returned consciousness of the Great Goddess and the birth of a new consciousness of the Divine Masculine, allowing the emergence of a new experience of the Twin Flame energy. This anchoring of these consciousness was reinforced again in March 2007 through the lunar eclipse, solar eclipse and vernal equinox. The immediate effect of this reinforcement was the emergence of these portals of energy in your world and reality. For you who have such a symbiotic union with Mother Earth through your bodies, this shift is indeed most easily accessed through the portals of nature. As you enter these harmonized fields with your awareness, take a moment of meditative time to sit and bask in the glow of this energy and feel it within. Slowly you become aware of the sweet and intimate union that is occurring within you of your soul and your body.....affecting your heart and mind. The opportunity at hand here is: now you can enter into the peace, serenity and quiet of your soul essence and observe your world and incarnation from this still and powerful place of love and compassion. No matter how much activity arises in your life ~ stay centered in the peace and quiet of your soul, observe and be in gratitude for your life and all its activities. Try to stay in this vibrational state for as long as possible, indefinitely we would say, though we know it is a new state that needs constant experiencing to become second nature, for second nature it shall be. For we have encouraged you in this year to hold a focus of your souls until the summer solstice of this year again and again. This is now the clarification of what we mean. For our love and accelerated frequencies are enhancing and reinforcing these new states of being in your divine masculine power, divine feminine power and divine twin flame light, so that you may experience these harmonized fields of light. No activity in your incarnation can surpass the importance of experiencing these portals of light at this time. Only in the embracing of these portals will you enter the kingdom of light that you have come to create here on Earth; and how easily you create this kingdom by simply entering it now. All things are possible now and yet the greatest possibility is to experience the union with your soul now more than ever before and this in truth is the highest goal of any incarnation. Relax and enjoy this with ease and grace, for sensationalism does not touch nor is it a part of this experience. It is simple truth, integrity, innocence with wisdom, and infinite compassion and care. We the Seraphim surround you here with the most luminous light we can generate at this time in order that full consciousness may grace your experiences of these portals of time and space. The waves of grace that are destined to begin after the summer solstice of your realms, depend on this quiet and simple, intimate and personal experience of the portals of light. Be aware of this therefore and take the time 'to smell the rose' that lies beside your path on your way to experiencing your soul face-to-face and verily we say, all of Heaven with rejoice to unite with Earth realms in new and special ways just for you! namaste!

Creating a New Earth and Activating the City of Light with the Cetacean Energy by Celia Fenn: workshop co-facilitated with Jhadten Jewall

Look at this beautiful image created by Jhadten Jewall. It carries the “Whale Codes” for the Twin Flame energy, and was the basis for our workshop in which we worked with the energies of the Cetaceans, the dolphins and primarily the Whales.

This was a beautiful and fun-filled workshop, in which the playful energy of the Dolphins allowed us to playfully co-create some wonderful New Earth energies.

The “audience” participated with us by toning and singing to help to activate the energies. It was wonderful experience. I have never heard a group of a hundred people who had never made music together before, sound like a choir of angels. But they did!

First task of the afternoon was to create a “twin flame” union between the Southern Right Whales, whom I worked with, and the Humpback Whales, whom Jhadten works with.

We allowed their energy to flow through us as we created a joyful blending and union of the Southern and Northern energy and light grids, through the whale energy. It was a joyful coming together of the Oceanic and land grids in a blending of Sound and Love and Joy. The Southern Right Whales sent a channeled message through Celia to invite all present to embrace the wonderful and pure energies of the New Earth.

The importance of the Whales in this work, is that the Whales are the keepers of the Earth’s Akasha and DNA records, as well as the keepers of our DNA. Their sound codes are an important aspect of the transformation of the Earth and of human DNA. Working with them in this way, honored their work with us and allowed us to work with them through the sound codes that we created on that afternoon as we sang with them in this beautiful moment of Twin Flame union and activation.

Second Task of the afternoon was the activation of a “City of Light” for Almere, the place in which we worked. (see image on page 1)

The Magdalene Flame Initiations in Dublin, Ireland on the Lunar Eclipse March 3 2007

It was indeed no coincidence that this workshop took place on the day the Divine Feminine was being anchored on the planet (see the channelings of Celia Fenn on this <http://www.starchildascension.org/> and the highlights of March 2007). It was such a beautiful and harmonious group and the initiations took place at the Clarendon Street Church Hall in the room of St. Theresa of Avila. The initiations happened just minutes before the actual lunar eclipse. We drove home after the workshop on Saturday to find the lunar eclipse just beginning. There was joy in the parks of Dublin and the energies were anchored in the area of Christchurch. Wicklow and Cork were also included with Uisneach as points of the Magdalene energy. Interestingly enough, my recently deceased mother turned up in one of the initiations to confirm the energies and also to impart that she now understood my work and was very proud of what I am doing. A true Blessing!

The Conclave of the Radiant Heart of the Golden Ages of Lemuria, Atlantis & Egypt the first experiences

The first workshop was held at Gloucester Cathedral, Gloucester in England. There were 100 in attendance though there could have been many more had fire regulations allowed us to accept more. Because of this I will be doing the workshop again in England, in Newcastle, on October 8th, 2007. This being the first of these conclaves, I was a bit excited and surprised to find myself very dried out in the first seconds of the workshop. This has never happened to me before and I have had similar experiences in the other subsequent workshops. It is an indication to me of the deeply altered states of consciousness we entered in order to do this work. The weather was lovely which made it especially nice since people were encouraged to spend some time outdoors in the breaks to begin to integrate the energies. At the above right here you can see the altar in the room, to the right of that you can see me teaching with the large pictures of Sekmet and Ptaah framing the altar: when I was given the information for this workshop, I was told the altar had to be exactly like this and as you shall see from the other photos it was very similar everywhere I went. Below that the Gloucester Cathedral itself where we had the lovely Elizabethan Room.

The following day was interesting as we were all very tired, which happened in most of the subsequent workshops, so definitely integration time was needed.

The next workshop was in Germany, in the Luneburger Heath, where we had done the Magdalene Flame initiations. It was linked intimately with the Heart of Germany in Fulda. We all experienced the same beauty of the Lemurian, Atlantean and Egyptian immaculate heart patterns that birthed those ages and the unity of these to birth the 7th golden age. Again great thirst and also very tired after the workshop but fine again on Monday.

Here below you can see the altar at the German workshop: different but the same! Each unique but the same energy. This workshop took place near the time of the solar eclipse.

The third workshop took place near the spring equinox in Switzerland at Lake Lucerne. The day before the workshop, a group of us went

On the right are some pictures that we took at the top of the mountain and at this village of Kastanienbaum.

The altar again is very different and yet the same energy. The group was amazing and the good weather made it easier than ever to integrate.

The image shows the place where we activated an anchor on Rigi and Pilatus in the background across the sea of clouds. Below the energy of a magnolia tree at Kastanienbaum (nb: message from the seraphim this month) Below the altar in Switzerland and the picture of the largest quartz crystal found in Switzerland which was being displayed for the first time at the time of our workshop!

to the top of the mountains Rigi and Pilatus and to the village of Kastanienbaum on the lake to create anchor points for the work that we would be doing in the Conclave the next day.

Finally, the last conclave would be the trinity combined and it truly proved to be such. With 75 in attendance it was quite an amazing experience. Such unity and oneness prevailed from the very beginning. During the other workshops and even in channeling the workshop, I had become more and more aware of the importance of the Lemurian Heart and the connection to the plants. Even the Seraphim have indicated that the experience of the new gateways of reality are accessed through the plant kingdoms in relationship to things around them. Hence, it was amazing to build the altar with the help of the owner of Koningsteen Monique Block. Flowers galore and plants galore graced the altar with overwhelming beauty. The experience of the workshop, though similar to other workshops in the unfolding of the initiations, was very different in that the integration of the workshop seemed to take place easily during the event. The beautiful weather and energy of this sacred place seemed to facilitate the integration in wondrous ways. The energy of the Iris room also helped. Above you can see a beautiful cherry tree in bloom next to the Iris room. Perhaps you can see how the roof of the building seems to reflect and mimic the patterns of the flowers. Live it was overwhelmingly clear. Below you can see an apple blossom group for during this workshop the apple blossom featured as the main image to access the vibrations of the new heart. There was a beautiful apple tree in the garden behind the Iris room where many could connect with this energy. The sunrise on the day of the workshop (above left) seems to be reflected in this flower as well as the altar itself. In other workshops, the lotus and the magnolia were often symbols of the energy of the new heart vibration.

The importance of the Lemurian Heart vibration has led to the guidance from Source that I am to do a trilogy of the Lemurian Gateway experience; in 2008 the first journey will be to Hawaii where the first Lemurian gateway will be accessed. In 2009 we will travel to the Amazon to access the second gateway. The third journey in this trilogy will be in 2010 and will take us to a triangle of energy created by Tonga, Fiji and the Cook Islands of New Zealand. I am so excited about these journeys and the energy that will be created through them, not only for the participants but also for Mother Earth and all of Humanity. A source that shall not be disclosed, from the depths of Tibet, has confirmed the importance of these journeys and their effect upon the world. It is, therefore, with great joy that I shall begin to work on creating the miraculous journeys into the sweetest vibrations of the heart. I am so extremely grateful for the experience of the Conclave of the Radiant Heart as it has led to this profound insight and guidance. The emergence of new sound vibrations through these experiences shall create an experience of our Divinity here on Earth that shall not only be new but also lead to the experience of a transformed reality. The Lemurian Heart is so intricately connected to various telluric realms that now new gateways of experience in the mineral and animal kingdom are possible as never before. I look forward to sharing this information as soon as we receive it and access its qualities. In the meantime, I would also be delighted to hear from those who attended the Conclaves for their feedback and experiences. Namaste.

Activating the Heart of Dubai
Workshop in UAE April 20-21, 2007

On my first day in Dubai, we went into the desert to have a barbecue (above left) and then it feels as if I had been there for months. Above right is the Burj Dubai in the background, taken from the beach. This will be the highest building in the world, the Heart of Dubai, symbolizing the aspirations of mankind to lofty dimensions of unity consciousness and abundance for all. Below the group of participants who took part in the awakening of the heart of Dubai. At the same time as our workshop, Jeff

Levine was clearing blockages in the geomancy of Dubai. Two friends from England had flown in especially for this workshop, Bea and David. Susanne Lehnherr did an amazing job of organizing this workshop and opening her home to us for the event. Many helped and it was a moving and powerful event. The City of Light Dubai had been activated by Jhadten and a group in Dubai in May 1998. At that time we were guided by the dolphins to lift a pearl energy from the bottom of the Gulf Sea to hover over the Gulf and Dubai, an energy of unity consciousness. At that time the largest pearl in the history of the Gulf was found. It has since become very clear. Now we were guided in the work to unite the pearl with the great tower of Burj Dubai which is destined to be completed in 2008. The work was so successful that we will be returning to Dubai in November 2007 to do the Conclave of the Radiant Heart of the Golden Ages. After the event and after all the workshops of this spring itinerary, Jhadten relaxed with organizers

CRYSTAL WORKSHOP LEVEL I IN GALWAY IRELAND
MAR 9~11, 2007

In Galway we experienced a lovely and powerful gathering for the beginner's level of crystal healing. It was quite an experience as well to participate when the numbers were uneven. It was during one such treatment, that I received information about the workshop we are to do in Ireland in the fall: Captivating the heart of Ireland ~ a conclave of the radiant heart of the golden ages. Queen Mave herself came to me to explain to me the significance of this work. Liken unto the keepers of Shamballa are the souls of Ireland for they are like Kings and Queens, sacred Keepers of the Celtic Bardic Codes and all souls of Ireland are of this royal blood that needs to be reawakened now so that every soul in Ireland can take up their guardianship again and resolve all lack, confine and limitation within the land, so that abundance for all and perfect fulfillment be the gift to all who hear then the Celtic Bardic Codes. Needless to say, the activation of the City of Light Galway was a beautiful event and the crystal mandala of the activation shone in great light for this event. Below the mandala and the City of Light Hologram created by Jhadten for the event.

The 17 Chakra Meditation: Re-recorded and now on CD!

How excited I am to tell you that we now have the new recording of the 17 Chakra Meditation on CD. Again Lori-Ann Speed has created such amazing music for this CD and the whole recording is filled with the new vibrations of Love that we have both garnered in the last 10 years. I am also pleased that it has already sold so well everywhere and including on the website. It truly is a new work of art and joy as well as love and enlightenment!

Whale Journey to the Dominican Republic "Silver Banks" March 1st to 8th, 2008 "Communications of Thoth on Sound Creation through the Cetaceans"

We are so happy that the whale journeys to the Dominican Republic shall continue. The boat we usually use was destroyed in the hurricane Kathrina and now a new company has emerged with a new boat run by one of the crew that we have always worked with, so we are sure to have a most beautiful experience with loving energies and joy. The whale journeys fill very quickly so please sign up as soon as possible to ensure you have a space. The cost of the journey in a new and more luxurious boat with cabins of double occupancy and private baths, including all taxes, fuel surcharges, tips and taxi transports as well as full onboard meals for the week is US $3100. An initial deposit of $1500 is necessary to secure your place, a second deposit of $1000 in Sept 2007 and the remainder in Dec 2007. You can visit the website to read more or call/write us. We usually stay at a resort a couple of days before the journey in Puerto Plata to prepare for the trip and a couple days after the journey to integrate the energies before coming home. We usually try to stay at the same resort and can help you with that. I will send out messages on the journey as well as a preparatory CD with a meditation to prepare you for the trip. I will also create a hologram and follow up meditation for the trip as well. Each day we meditate 'under the stars' to attune to the energies of each day of encounters! Namaste!
